The information provided in this brochure is intended to act as a guide only. RATIONAL India sells goods to its leasing partner on principal to principal basis. Leasing of goods is as per terms and conditions defined under leasing agreement between lessor and lessee. RATIONAL India is not in any way responsible for any dispute arising out of leasing of goods. RATIONAL cooking systems are also available without this offer.

Why lease a RATIONAL?

RATIONAL units can be capital intensive commercial kitchen equipment for one to purchase. And when opening up a catering establishment you need to manage your budget, that's why so many restaurants, bars and other catering establishments are turning to leasing, help spread the cost with a RATIONAL combi-steamer lease over a period of up to 2 years leaving you with capital to invest into your business.

Benefits of leasing RATIONAL combi-steamer.

- › Unlike rental agreements, you have the option to own the RATIONAL equipment at the end of the leasing tenure.
- › There is total flexibility to change your equipment after 2 years.
- › Guaranteed maintenance and service agreements during the leasing period of your equipment.
- › Significant tax benefits – for most businesses as these payments are fully tax deductible.
- › Low, fixed payments spread the cost of the equipment over its operational life, enabling you to access the benefits of combi-steamer without a significant initial investment.
- › Includes all costs of the equipment into a fixed monthly payment, such as delivery of the unit, installation, training, maintenance package and warranty. This helps in an easy and safe cost planning for the future as the monthly cost remains consistent.
- › No need to rely on your bank in these uncertain times.
- › Pay GST in instalments to spread the cost.
